

Meader Fine Arts Library at the Kalamazoo Institute of Arts Donations Policy

The Meader Fine Arts Library accepts donations of art- and art-history-related items. In accepting a donation of materials, the library reserves the right to decide whether items should be added to the collection. If donated books and other materials are not added to the collection, these items will be sold on our book sale cart. The library cannot assess the value of a donation. We can provide a donation form that you can complete for your records. It is the responsibility of the donor to determine the value of the donation or use an independent appraiser to do it for them. We do not accept: anything damaged or in poor physical condition, eg damp, dirty, or moldy; textbooks; magazines; audio cassettes; VHS tapes. Due to space limitations we cannot accept more than two paper grocery bags (or similar-size boxes) of donated items per person per day. If you are interested in donating more than that to the library please email library@kiarts.org or phone 269-585-9291.
